Subject Cataloging Division,1989 Alternative Real Estate Research Ling Hin Li,2014-09-15 This book aims to provide insight into the soft side of real estate research and the interesting results and implications of the real estate research outside the traditional realm of investment financial aspects The book also attempts to answer what constitutes the so called soft side of real estate research if we shift our focus from the usual financial returns and investment analysis It also attempts to address whether there is such thing as an alternative real estate research paradigm The book also argues that research in real estate should not only be limited to land and property market performance analyses as this may greatly impair the potential research implications of various real estate studies The book argues that such analyses take on a very myopic view of real estate research This book will interest many who wish to learn more about the alternative aspect of real estate research which is more than just about investment analysis Strengthening Families, Communities, and Schools to Support Children's Development Edmund W. Gordon,Betina Jean-Louis,Nkechi Obiora,2017-09-05 Drawing on a range of contexts influenced by the Promise Neighborhoods Program a federal place based initiative to improve educational outcomes for students in distressed urban and rural neighborhoods this book outlines effective characteristics and elements for implementing supplementary education Chapter authors demonstrate that the disparities in educational achievement between white and non white students can only be addressed by a holistic approach that takes the communities in which schools are situated as its focal point This edited collection distills the insights gained from the communities implementing such comprehensive education programs and provides the framework and models for reproducing such successes Housing Act of 1959 United States.
