TV by Design Lynn Spigel, 2008 From the Publisher While critics have long disparaged commercial television as a vast wasteland TV has surprising links to the urbane world of modern art that stretch back to the 1950s and 60s during that era the rapid rise of commercial television coincided with dynamic new movements in the visual arts a potent combination that precipitated a major shift in the way Americans experienced the world visually TV by Design uncovers this captivating story of how modernism and network television converged and intertwined in their mutual ascent during the decades of the cold war Whereas most histories of television focus on the way older forms of entertainment were recycled for the new medium Lynn Spigel shows how TV was instrumental in introducing the public to the latest trends in art and design Abstract expressionism pop art art cinema modern architecture and cutting edge graphic design were all mined for staging techniques scenic designs and an ever growing number of commercials As a result TV helped fuel the public craze for trendy modern products such as tailfin cars and boomerang coffee tables that was vital to the burgeoning postwar economy And along with influencing the look of television many artists including Eero Saarinen Ben Shahn Saul Bass William Golden and Richard Avedon also participated in its creation as the networks put them to work designing everything from their corporate headquarters to their company cufflinks Dizzy Gillespie Ernie Kovacs Duke Ellington and Andy Warhol all stop by in this imaginative and winning account of the ways in which art television and commerce merged in the first decades of the TV age

Ozark Mosaic Richard S. Drake, 2004 As Northwest Arkansas entered the 21st Century it found itself facing the same spiritual and political struggles that many other American cities faced Here are the stories of people who were determined to make their communities better than they were It is a book that tells the story of great triumphs and bravery in the face of overwhelming odds Even in defeat the men and women in these pages found spiritual solidarity Ozark Mosaic is the perfect antidote for those who feel that people no longer are the masters of their own destinies

River of Fire John MacLeod, 2011-11-01 Vibrating with endeavours for Britain s effort against the might of Nazi Germany Clydebank was in hindsight an obvious target for the attentions of the Luftwaffe When on the evening of 13 March 1941 the authorities first detected that Clydebank was on beam targeted by the primitive radio guidance system of the German bombers no effort was made to raise the alarm or to direct the residents to shelter or flight Within the hour a vast timber yard three oil stores and two distilleries were ablaze one pouring flaming whisky into a burn that ran blazing into the Clyde itself in vivid ribbons of fire And still the Germans came and Clydebank now an inferno lay illuminated and defenceless as heavy bombs of high explosive as land mines and parachute blasters began to fall With reference to written sources and the memories of those who survived the experience John MacLeod tells the story of the Clydebank Blitz and the terrible scale of death and devastation speculating on why its incineration has been so widely forgotten and its ordeal denied any place in national honour
