Retrace English Edition:

The Translator's Mirror for the Romantic Fan Shengyu, 2022-05-29 The Translator's Mirror for the Romantic Cao Xueqin's Dream and David Hawkes Stone is a book that uses precious primary sources to decipher a master translator's art in Stone's brilliant English translation of the most famous Chinese classic novel Dream of the Red Chamber. This book demonstrates a bilingual close reading which sheds light on both the original and its translation. By dividing the process of translation into reading, writing and revising and involving the various aspects of Sinological research, textual criticism, recreation and literary allusions, this book ventures to emphasise the idea of translation as a dialogue between the original and the translated text, between the translator and his former self and a learning process both for the translator and the reader of his translation. Any student of Chinese language and literature or Chinese English translation will benefit from this book. For students and scholars who want to study David Hawkes and his Stone, this book is an indispensable aid. Readers will be interested to see how a non-theoretical analysis could be used to evaluate this translation for it makes an extremely important and useful contribution to this subject.

longer did the work necessary to quell justice because by the 19th century we wanted to know more than just the fact of wrongdoing we wanted to know who the criminal was not just whether the accused committed the crime but what it was about him that made him commit the crime An avowal of wrong doing was no longer sufficient psychiatric expertise was now necessary and that development marks the birth of discipline and modern criminal justice made so famous by Foucault
