Bilingual Literacy Development at Home Yang Wang, 2025-09-30 This book explores pedagogical implications for how children read write respond to literature and begin to learn an additional language in the home context

Using a longitudinal ethnographic study it explores a bilingual child's literacy development over a span of four years from kindergarten to the third grade in a real life home context in the United States. Written from a parent researcher's perspective it illustrates the child's Mandarin Chinese and English language support at home and in the community during the pandemic and charts the development in bilingual reading and writing multimodal reading responses to children's literature and learning Spanish as a third language. Through rich and detailed descriptions the case study methodology allows a clear articulation of the project's focus and foregrounds the exploration of reading as a sociopsycholinguistic process as well as highlighting multimodality in reading and writing responses, translanguaging and bilingual and bicultural identities to study and teach culturally and linguistically diverse children. It will be a valuable resource for literacy researchers, scholars and bilingual educators with interests in sociolinguistics, literacy education, bilingualism and translanguaging.
