

NURSING RESTORATIVE PROGRAMS

The Patient-Driven Payment Model (PDPM) is the Medicare payment rule for skilled nursing facilities.

Restorative programs are interventions that enable nursing home residents to reach their highest level of functional abilities to encourage independence and to prevent functional decline.

Restorative programs can be started on admission and at any time when a resident needs assistance with something and has a goal or the potential to maintain or improve function.

Both nurses and therapists are able to set up restorative programs when appropriate. However, it is the nurses that are responsible for monitoring and documentation of progress toward goals. Evaluation or resident participation and progress should be documented by nurses at least weekly.

To be successful and to qualify as a restorative program for MDS purposes, a program must include:

- Determine which restorative program would be appropriate for the individual resident
- Update careplan and orders for completion by aides and assessment by nurses
- Measurable and objective goals
- Evidence of periodic evaluation by licensed nurse
- Supervision by a licensed nurse to ensure completion of at least 15 minutes a day
- Daily charting of completed time by nurses and aides

Restorative plans as indicated on the MDS include the following:

- Ambulation/Walking
  - Walking with or without assistive devices
- Amputation and Prosthetic Care
  - Putting on, removing, and caring for prosthesis; hygiene and care for amputation site
- Bathing and Washing
- Bed Mobility
  - Moving to and from a lying position, scooting up or down, turning side to side, positioning self in bed
- Brace and Splint Assistance
  - Guidance and directions for application and care or scheduled program or application and removal. Splints and braces may include the following: AFO, arm sling, CAM boot, cast shoe, cervical collar, leg/knee immobilizer, lumbar support brace, palm guards hand split, resting hand splint, TLSO, etc.
- Communication
  - Functional skills or assisting resident in using skills or adaptive devices
- Dressing and Undressing
- Eating and/or Swallowing
  - Feeding oneself or activities to improve or maintain residents ingestion and hydration
- Grooming
  - Personal hygiene tasks
- Range of Motion (Active or Passive)
  - Maintain flexibility, useful motion, and strength in the joints of the body
- Toileting Program
- Transfers
  - Moving between surfaces or planes either with or without assistance devices

Incorporating Restorative and Community Justice Into American Sentencing and Corrections Leena Kurki, 1999

Critical Restorative Justice Ivo Aertsen, Brunilda Pali, 2017-11-16 Theories and practices of justice do not meet the socio political challenges of our times For those theorists attempting to develop an alternative to the criminal justice system restorative justice has provided an alternative horizon The restorative justice approach involves meeting people understanding and recognising their vulnerability through participatory and deliberative forums and practices The aim of this collection is to bridge the distance between restorative justice and the critical theory tradition It on the one hand takes into account the limits of restorative justice as they have been articulated or can be articulated through critical social theory and on the other hand emphasises the ground breaking potential that restorative justice can bring to this tradition as a way to address crimes conflicts and injustices and to pursue justice Restorative Practice Meets Social Justice Anthony H.

Normore, Antonia Issa Lahera, 2017-01-01 Restorative Practice Meets Social Justice Un silencing the Voices of At Promise Student Populations is a collection of pragmatic urban school experiences that focus on restorative approaches situated in the context of social justice By adopting this approach researchers and practitioners can connect and extend long established lines of conceptual and empirical inquiry aimed at improving school practices and thereby gain insights that may otherwise be overlooked or assumed This holds great promise for generating refining and testing theories of restorative practices in educational leadership and will help strengthen already vibrant lines of inquiry on social justice The authors posit that a broader conceptualization of social and restorative justice adds to extant discourse about students who not only experience various types of daily oppression in US schools but also regularly live on the fringes of society Chapters are written by a combination of researchers and practicing school leaders who believe in the power of healing and restoring relationships within school communities as opposed to traditional punitive structures The dynamic approaches discussed throughout the book urge school leaders teachers school community members and those who prepare administrators to look within and build bridges between themselves and the communities in which they serve Sentencing & Corrections, 1999 Creating

Restorative Justice Gregory D. Paul, Ian M. Borton, 2021-04-07 Discussion of the histories meanings and assumptions of restorative justice have enriched the development of its theory research and practices While some of this work has addressed the role of communication the treatment of communication within restorative justice remains rather under developed Communication plays a central role in processes of restoration and justice and a constitutive role in making restorative justice what it is In Creating Restorative Justice A Communication Perspective of Justice Restoration and Community Gregory D Paul and Ian M Borton argue that by centering communication in restorative justice as it occurs in various contexts from families to schools to communities we can simultaneously deepen our understanding enrich our practice and amplify our study of restoration and justice From a communication perspective restorative contexts both use and are created by the communication present Any outcomes from restorative processes are thus the product of the communication both within and between restorative practices participants As the world addresses the challenges presented by injustice inequality and insecurity it is incumbent we expand our understanding of restorative processes to account for the vital role of communication

Restorative Responses to Sexual Violence Estelle Zinsstag, Marie Keenan, 2017-02-17 Sexual violence in all its forms is a crime for which anecdotal accounts and scholarly reports suggest victims in their great majority do not receive adequate justice or redress The theory and practice of restorative justice is rapidly developing and offers some well argued new avenues for dealings with crime in general It has the potential to be extended to cases of sexual violence and a number of small scale programmes are already underway across the world Restorative Responses to Sexual Violence examines this innovative justice paradigm in more depth in the particular context of sexual trauma and violence in order to establish the empirical realities of restorative justice approaches in cases of sexual violence and considers how such approaches could be developed adequately in the future This book is divided into two parts each representing a key area of research and practice theoretical and conceptual frameworks and justice and therapeutic perspectives This international collection brings together leading expert scholars and practitioners to offer both theoretical and practical perspectives on restorative justice and sexual violence This book will be of interest to researchers in the field of law criminology psychology social science social work and psychotherapy as well as practitioners in the fields of criminal justice restorative justice and sex offender and victim trauma therapies

Restorative Justice Jennifer Furio, 2002 America keeps expanding its prisons despite the lack of any credible evidence to show that this punitive view of justice provides safer communities and reduces crime But how is this justice system serving us This book is an introduction to the concept and practice of restorative justice by Jennifer Furio who captured America's heart with her letter exchanges with murderers

Practicing Restorative Justice Erika Strauss Chavarria, 2024-09-30 Traditionally educator preparation programs only provide classes related to content practical pedagogy and classroom management If we hope to see any level of justice in the education system preparation programs must include courses that take an honest and deep dive into the ways in which racism shows up in schools and communities Aspiring educators are craving and demanding the tools and resources to be the best educators they can be for our students in this country They know the importance of advocating for and enacting anti racism in their pedagogical practices in school policy and culture and in their community The authors of this book will offer first hand testimony of how deep racism permeates public education an institution that since its founding was never meant for Black and brown students as well as solutions to create truly just and equitable school communities The ultimate mission of Practicing Restorative Justice is to show readers the effectiveness of restorative justice practices in addressing a number of issues that impact Black and brown students It takes a deep dive into the School to Prison Pipeline in which failed education policies push students of color out of schools and into the penal system dooming them for life Other topics include policing in schools systemic racism
