

Postwar America, 1945–1960

The economic boom that followed World War II, funded in part by the GI Bill, created a large middle-class population. This newly prosperous group purchased luxury goods, including televisions. The rapid rise of television changed mass media and contributed to the emergence of a youth culture. Unfortunately, many millions remained trapped in poverty.

DIRECTIONS: The chart below lists statements about life in America in the 1950s. Complete the chart by supplying information to support each statement.
