1. The House of Commons is the lower house of the United Kingdom's Parliament. It is made up of 650 members, known as Members of Parliament (MPs).
2. The House of Lords is the upper house of the United Kingdom's Parliament. It is made up of 26 members, known as Lords.
3. The House of Bishops is a part of the House of Lords. It is made up of 24 members, known as Bishops.
4. The House of Peers is a part of the House of Lords. It is made up of 22 members, known as Peers.
5. The House of Commons is the main body that makes laws in the United Kingdom. It is responsible for passing bills that become law.
6. The House of Lords has the power to veto or delay legislation passed by the House of Commons. However, it cannot veto a bill for more than two years.
7. The House of Commons is responsible for electing the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom. The Prime Minister is the head of the government.
8. The House of Commons is also responsible for holding the government accountable. It does this through a process called 'question time', where MPs can ask the Prime Minister and other ministers questions about government policy.
9. The House of Commons is also responsible for passing the annual budget for the United Kingdom. The budget is a statement of the government's financial plans for the coming year.
10. The House of Commons is also responsible for passing the annual report of the government's activities. This report is known as the 'Cabinet Office Report'.
