Trauma, Taboo, and Truth-Telling Nancy J. Gates-Madsen, 2016-07-20 Silences taboos and public secrets carry their own deep meaning about Argentina's painful legacy of repression Tamar's Revenge Tirso de Molina, 1988 The story comes from the Second Book of Samuel and tells of the incestuous passion of Amnon David's eldest son for his half sister Tamar and the subsequent murder of Amnon by his brother Absalom Amnon's lust is set in the context of complementary passions of ambition and revenge reflected in Absalom and Tamar respectively The play explores King David's conflict between justice and mercy when confronted with these tragic events It is a work of constantly changing perspectives in which tragedy and comedy instead of being simply juxtaposed are blended in a highly original way Tirso's play is one of the earliest treatments of a theme that has continued to be an inspiration for such modern writers as the novelist Dan Jacobson in The Rape of Tamar and the dramatist Peter Shaffer in Jonadab Spanish text with facing page translation commentary and notes Queering the Vampire Narrative , 2023-10-20 Queering the Vampire Narrative offers classroom ready original essays that continue our explorations of vampires as representations of the cultural Other which builds on the work of our previous texts The editors argue ultimately the vampire is a queer icon infinitely blurring the boundaries of identity and cultural norms and queering even the most seemingly stable notions such as life death humanity and monstrosity The Vampire is the undead monarch of subtextual articulations of Otherness especially queer behaviors and desires offering explorations of the AIDS epidemic the destabilization of ideas of fixed and stable sexuality the search for community and chosen family and the issues of individual and generational trauma In current fictions vampires are coming out of the coffin and the closet identifying as openly queer and often created by queer writers artists and directors and bringing the subtext to the surface of the narrative This volume seeks to create a dialogue about the impact and importance of the vampire on queer identity and queer theory and to answer the questions of why the vampire is such a compelling queer icon and what visions of vampires articulate about our ideas surrounding issues of sexuality sexual orientation sexual behaviors and desires

So he starts on a search that will take him all over Britain following the clues he finds after tracking down the people Sophie met at the festival. Pedagogic Criticism Ben Knights, 2017-07-01 This book argues that the history of English Studies is embedded in its classroom practice and its practice in its history. Some of its foundational struggles are still being lived out today. English is characterized as a boundary subject active in dialogue across a number of imagined borders especially those between academic and non specialized readerships. While the subject discipline maintains strong pedagogic principles many of its principles and values are obscure or even invisible to students and potential students. The book cross fertilizes the study of English as a subject with the analysis of selected literary texts read as pedagogic parables. It concludes with a call for a return to the subject's pedagogic roots.

The Culture of Sentiment Shirley Samuels, 1992-12-17 Samuels's collection of critical essays gives body and scope to the subject of nineteenth century sentimentality by situating it in terms of women's culture and issues of race. Presenting an interdisciplinary range of approaches that consider sentimental culture before and after the Civil War these critical studies of American literature and culture fundamentally reorient the field. Moving beyond alignment with either pro or anti sentimentality camps the collection makes visible the particular racial and gendered forms that define the aesthetics and politics of the culture of sentiment. Drawing on the fields of American cultural history, American studies and literary criticism the contributors include Lauren
